Music Celebrations International
Concert Tours With Integrity

Orangerie in Schönbrunn Palace

An Exclusive Concert Series

Austria is so steeped in music that musicians the world over consider a performance tour here as a musical pilgrimage to the cradle of Western Civilization's musical heritage. To combine performances in exciting and historical venues with on-the-spot exposure to the music of the Masters is an enriching musical and educational experience.

Gluck, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Bruckner, Brahms, Strauss, Mahler, Schoenberg, Herbert von Karajan, Karl Böhm and numerous other musical personalities were all Austrian by birth or adoption. Vienna was their home. Their music influenced the entire world. Festival participants see their homes, their manuscripts, their musical instruments, venues of their incredible performances, and walk in their footsteps.

Picture your band playing in Salzburg's Mirabell Gardens, Bad Ischl's Lehar Theatre, or in Vienna's Orangerie in Schönbrunn Palace!

With your overseas contacts, experience and expertise you are able to set up the very highest quality musical and cultural experiences the world over.

"I wanted to take a moment to, once again, thank you for our incredible tour of Eastern Europe (Austria) last spring. The experience was truly wonderful in every way and surpassed my hopes and expectations. I never expected the size of audiences we had and their enthusiasm."

Stephen Lytle, Band Director
North Carolina

"I've been traveling with ensembles to Europe since 1961 and have considerable experience with travel organizations but I can truthfully say Music Celebrations International is the most professional organization I have worked with."
