Concert Tours With Integrity

Salzburg Dom

An Exclusive Concert Series

Austria is so steeped in music that musicians the world over consider a performance tour here as a musical pilgrimage to the cradle of Western Civilization's musical heritage. To combine performances in exciting and historical venues with on-the-spot exposure to the music of the Masters is an enriching musical and educational experience.

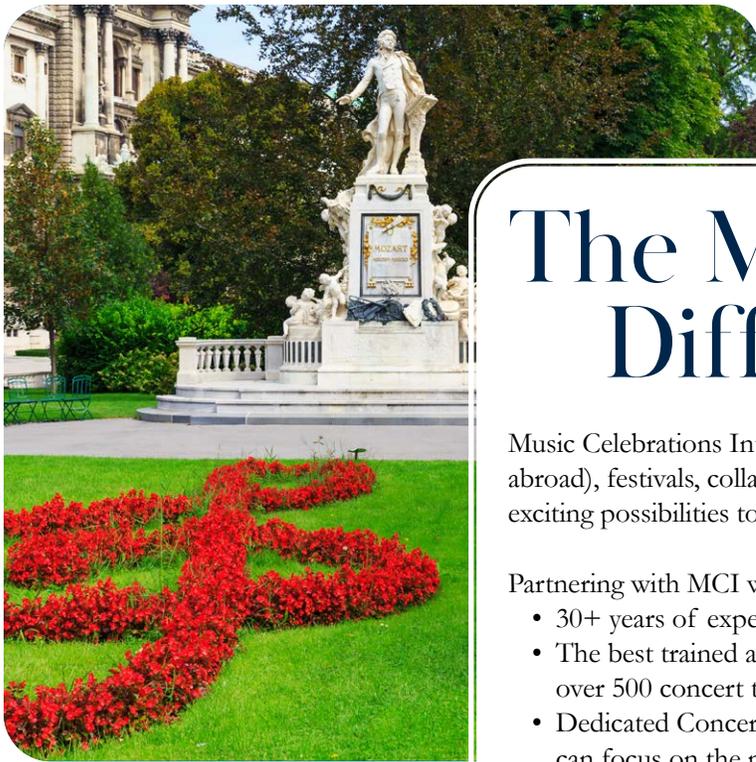

Gluck, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Bruckner, Brahms, Strauss, Mahler, Schoenberg, Herbert von Karajan, Karl Böhm and numerous other musical personalities were all Austrian by birth or adoption. Vienna was their home. Their music influenced the entire world. Festival participants see their homes, their manuscripts, their musical instruments, venues of their incredible performances, and walk in their footsteps.

Picture your choir performing in the Salzburg Dom, Vienna's St. Stephen's Cathedral, or Mondsee's Basilica of St. Michael!

"Thank you for an amazing performance in Salzburg! Singing The Coronation Mass in that space where it was premiered was life changing for all of us."

Stan Engebretson, Director
National Philharmonic Chorale

"We had a GREAT tour. I thought MCI was brilliant, from start to finish. The focus on music history was loved by the students, and I can't begin to tell you how many of them talked with me about how our visits to the various sites brought their understanding and appreciation of music history to a different place."

Steve Zielke, Choir Director
Oregon State University

"Chamber Chorus' European Concert Tour (Austria) was the trip of a lifetime! MCI knocked it out of the park! Thrilled with the execution of the tour. Would do it all again in a heartbeat."

Daniel Watson, Choir Director
Covenant Christian High School
