An Exclusive Concert Series

The American Celebration of Music in France includes destinations and musical experiences that remind participants of Franco-American ties and long friendships that date back to the American Revolution in 1776. Normandy (Omaha Beach and the American Cemetery) and Eastern France provide opportunities to pay musical tribute to thousands of Americans who never returned to America, having given their all for the present freedom of Europe and our country.

In Paris on any given day, there are possible as many as 300 difference concerts. The French love and support both traditional and contemporary musical performances. Paris was “second Vienna” for French musicians and composers including Berlioz, Auger, Gounod, Saint-Saens, Franck, Faure, Ravel, Debussy, and many others. France boasts many music festivals throughout the country, particularly in the summer months. The potential availability of prestigious and gorgeous venues in Paris alone is staggering. Imagine a performance by your musicians in Notre-Dame Cathedral, Les Invalides, La Madeleine, La Trinite, Jardins du Luxembourg, St. Roch, the American Cathedral, St. Severin, or a French château! Your concert tour is truly enriched with your surroundings of art history, architecture, and beauty that is best experienced “first hand.”

“We have never experienced such turnouts anywhere in Europe and did not expect it in France for sure. I need at least 10 hours face-to-face to tell you what was fantastic about this tour.”

Alan Heatherington, Director
Chicago Master Singers

"Thank you for allowing my students to have these memories. I can't even imagine how big their world became because of this tour. You absolutely changed their futures. You gave all of us (myself included) some once-in-a-lifetime moments that will energize our choir and music program until our next international trip. We sang in Notre Dame in Paris! I mean, how many people can ever say that!?"

Dr. Christopher Larsen, Director
Ohio Northern University Choir

"Wow! I don't even know where to begin!! What a great time we all had in France - truly an incredible trip, amazing performance venues, memories to last a lifetime!!"

Linda Streck, Tour Coordinator
Valley High School Choir
