Krakow (Cracow), seat of Poland's oldest university and once the nation's capital (before relinquishing the honor to Warsaw in 1611) is one of the few Polish cities that escaped devastation during World War II. Today Krakow's fine towers, facades, and churches illustrating seven centuries of Polish architecture, make it a major attraction for visitors. Listed by UNESCO in 1978 as one of the 12 great historic cities of the world, Krakow represents a great repository of Polish history, art and architecture

Day 3

Krakow

(B,D)

Breakfast at the hotel

Enjoy a guided sightseeing tour of this ancient capital of Poland, a royal city on the Vistula, lying at the foot of Wawel, a limestone hill on whose peak raises a splendid royal palace and the Cathedral of Sts. Stanislaw and Waclaw. Start with a visit to the Royal Castle and Cathedral on the Wawel Hill, which were remodeled according to the new Renaissance taste in the beginning of the 16th century. It is the place where Polish Kings were crowned and buried. Afterwards, drive to the Old Town with its Main Market Square and its magnificent houses and palaces. In the middle of the square is the Cloth Hall, built before 1349 but altered in the 16th century with many shopping stalls inside. Also, visit St. Mary's Church

Day 5

Krakow / Auschwitz

(B,D)

Breakfast at the hotel

Guided tour of the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp outside of Krakow. The death camp at Oswiecim (known as Konzentrationslager Auschwitz) was in fact a complex of camps, the largest Nazi death factory, where four million people, mostly Jews, perished. Auschwitz consisted of several units, including the largest one at Birkenau. Of the millions of people brought there in the period of 1940-1944, only 60 to 70 thousand utterly emaciated victims were alive at the time of liberation of the camp. The National Museum of Oswiecim is presently situated on the site of the former camp
